

Financial Services

At Gfeller Laurie LLP, our Financial Services practice is wide-ranging and includes banking, title insurance, real estate, and business transactions of all kinds. We represent institutions and individuals in litigation, regulatory compliance, transactions and corporate formation. Our attorneys who practice in this area have the depth of knowledge and wealth of practical experience to handle the most complex situations, and to provide comprehensive and client-focused results in a cost-effective manner.